LAW SECRETARIAT

Passes orders regarding the establishment of a Rural Welfare Centre at Anandapuram, Sagar Taluk.

READ—

Government Order No. L. 8044-51—V. P. 57-36-1, dated 6—10th May 1937, passing orders regarding the establishment of a Rural Welfare Centre at Closepet.

2. Government Order No. 4107-22—V. P. 31-39-7, dated 28th October 1939, passing orders on the Management of the Rural Welfare Centre at Dodballapur.

3. Letter No. C. A. C. 429—43-44, dated 21st March 1944, from the Secretary, Central Advisory Committee for Rural Development, forwarding a resolution of the Committee recommending that Rural Welfare Centres on the lines of those established at Closepet and Dodballapur may be started in two of the Malnad Districts.

4. Correspondence ending with letter No. R. D. R1. C. 234—43-44, dated 12th July 1944, from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, forwarding proposals for the establishment of a Rural Welfare Centre at Anandapuram, Sagar Taluk, Shimoga District.

ORDER NO. L. 6043-58—V. P. 17-43-6, DATED BANGALORE, THE 19TH DECEMBER 1944.

The question of starting Rural Welfare Centres in the Malnad Districts is being urged repeatedly on the attention of Government at the Sessions of the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council and at the District Conferences. The Central Advisory Committee for Rural Development have also recommended that two Rural Welfare Centres may be started during the current year in the Malnad Districts.

2. The Revenue Commissioner was accordingly requested to submit suitable proposals for the establishment of a Centre at Anandapuram, Sagar Taluk. He forwarded detailed proposals for starting a Centre at Anandapuram on the lines of those at Closepet and Dodballapur with slight modifications to suit the local conditions.

3. As the establishment of a Rural Welfare Centre will be an important step towards the improvement of villages in the Malnad Area, Government are pleased to direct that a Rural Welfare Centre be established at Anandapuram, Sagar Taluk, during the current year. The initial and the annual recurring expenditure for the Centre is estimated at Rs. 15,000 and Rs. 5,040, respectively, and it will be met out of the provision made in the State Budget under "Assignments to Village Panchayets" during the current year. Separate provision will be made therefor in the State Budget from 1945-46 onwards.

4. The work to be done at the Centre is detailed in the statement appended to this order and it will be restricted to begin with to 159 villages (83 Asli and 76 Majare) of Sagar Taluk and gradually extended to other villages as indicated therein.

5. The Special Officer for Rural Development in Mysore who will be Chairman of the Committee of Management of this Rural Welfare Centre is requested to take immediate action for starting the Centre and to submit to Government proposals for appointing the establishment, etc., required for the purpose.

6. The Heads of Development Departments are requested to extend to the Chairman of the Managing Committee their co-operation for the successful working of the Centre.

C. NARAYANASWAMY NAIDU,
Secretary to Government,
Law Department.
